

Limited Warranty

All items are warranted against defects in materials and workmanship for a period of six months. If at any time during this period you discover a defect we will repair or replace the item at our discretion. Due to the inherent rough nature of horse training, items that have been misused, neglected, damaged through improper use, will not be covered by this limited warranty. The aforementioned exclusions include; but are not limited to: Using any product sold on this web site as a tie down, obvious excessive strain placed on the item, trampling, damage by using harsh chemicals to clean the item, or any other misuse not mentioned (dog chewing, caked in mud, used as a tow rope or tree swing, etc). E&M Natural Horse Training will not be held liable for any damage or injury relating to the purchase and/or use of our products, nor will we be responsible for any incidental or consequential damages. The foregoing is the entire warranty and no other warranty whether written or implied will be honored.
